There are also two warehouses on the property with several areas for animals where one of them is documented, in the same area where a huge water tank is located, supplied by the borehole of the same.

Scattered throughout the land there are several areas of well-treated agriculture, where in this extremely fertile land you can see and follow the growth of vegetables and fruit in each season and season.

In addition to everything already said, the location of the lots is in a peaceful area with unobstructed views.

Plot 2 : (4612 m2)

Rustic land bordering Lot 1, to which there is enormous potential for agriculture with a vineyard and several well-treated fruit trees, to which is added a water hole, although with little use due to what already exists in Lot 1.
